she has enough of them, and her statesmen are: I too indicious; they know the well the state of opinion in their own country to encounter themselves with a fresh conquest. England has no influence to so interhibance in Abystinic. She has no desire to place an Emperer of her de choice on the throne left vacant by Theolore. She has enterwed the cause of no Pretender; and a she will leave the Abyssmirm people to organize themselves as they think proper. The Expelie tion will have cost dear; but the price is not io juxcessive. The Journal de Paris knows of nothing more astonishing or more ably combined than the y march of the English army : and anthing comparable to its prompt success. The taxpayer, agreement inclined to grumble, cannot but admit. that the English Government has got cheaply which some mirese critica. affected to regard as analogous to the French Expedition in Mexico. The Journal des Debets in certain that not a t. roice will be raised in England to charge the. g journals and Sir Hobert Napier with want of I patriotism because they do not intend to profit ch fly the present occasion, and to substitute ed at Magdala the influence of the Saxon race for the influence of the Abyssinian.

La France implethroughout the whole of this officing aconvincing proof of the lofty patriotsing which in England gives so much authority and force to political parties." It condemned the conduct of the Opposition in the Legisla-elt five Chamber on the Mexican Expedition; and it contrasts with it that of the Opposition in the House of Commons. In England parties out may be divided on questions of internal policy, but they are never divided where British diplo-om many or British armies are engaged abroad. ce The sentiment of national bonour predominates in over all divergent opinion. In Parliament all on antigonism ceases. The Press onanimously rallies round the Government. Discussion is me longer beard. At one sitting necessary supplies are voted, and £5,000,000 sterling are spent to rescae a few English captives out of the hands the of Theodore. At such times England has but one soul as she has but one flag. La France conby cludes :- " It is a noble example, and worthy of being meditated upon and imitated elsewhere le- The victory of Magdala is a political fact, the er, or disc unbled. It gives to England in the fire a end ments of propoudennice, and it may be of do-mination. But we should not lose our time in i showing jealousy of hee, or in obstructing her. Hongkong, Tuesday Evening. The Drug market continues quiet and dull. The following are the ruling prices, with more nellers than layers, on eash terms :- New Patrix, 80234 to $6 5; Benares, $615 to $6174; Malwa, 3660 to 36621. The present tight condition of the money. market is beginning to have its effect on trade adiong the natives as well as the foreign comnets ununity, and a suspension of business must be the result if relief is not shortly forthcoming. There have been a few saies of Piece Goods, inchaling some T-Cloths and Yarn, and a parcel of 8/1 Grey Shirtings at up low as $2,90. The market for these last goods may be considered down about 5 or ten cents, but the decline is more than componented for by the rates of Exchange now inling: Transactions reported include 6,000 pieces 8/4 Grey Shirtings at $2.90 to $2.95, 1,000 pieces 7 lbs. at $2.55, 100 pieces 7 lbs. T-Cloth, at $2.55, 100 bales 38/42 Yarn at $157!. There is some slight inquiry for Raw Cotton, and 300 bales Bombay Staple have been placed at $21.00 to $22.50. The share market is dull, affected in a specific programs for the transfer of the great measure by the tight condition of the money market. There is no speculation in progress, and nearly all the sellers are auxious. to realize for the purpose of raising money.
